

SOROPTIMIST

International of Greater St. Louis

January 4, 2017

Dear Applicant:

Soroptimist International of Greater St. Louis (SIGSL) is a member of Soroptimist International of Americas, a worldwide organization. We are business and professional women whose mission is to improve the lives of women and girls in our local community and throughout the world. Since 1974, SIGSL has awarded grants to support efforts of local organizations who work to improve the lives of women and children.

SIGSL is currently accepting applications for its Humanities Awards. Selected organizations will be awarded in June 2017. Awards range between $500 and $3,000. These organizations should serve women, girls, families and/or teens in the Greater St. Louis metropolitan area. Applicants should reflect the following objective of the Soroptimist International of the America's strategic plan:

Improve the life of women and girls by working to end poverty and violence against women and addressing other issues affecting their economic, political and political process.

Application deadline is March 1, 2017. Submit only one application per organization. Award recipients will be notified in May, 2017 and be asked to attend an awards ceremony in June, 2017. Incomplete or late applications will not be considered.

Return applications to:
